

Fund Raising Qawali Night Organized By Stop TB Partnership Pakistan

Inline with the regional theme of this year's world TB Day i.e. Singing the Song of Stop TB, a Qawali Night with "Amjad Sabri" was organized by Stop TB Partnership Pakistan in collaboration with Kay & A (Pvt.) Limited, Zong and Faislabad Chamber of Commerce.

The Stop TB Partnership Pakistan is a nongovernmental body represented by national and provincial TB Control Programs, TB Patients, multilateral agencies, donors, media, private sector, academia and civil society organizations. The partnership serves as an indigenous means of resource mobilization and advocacy for TB control in Pakistan.

The Stop TB Partnership Pakistan in collaboration with different media partners will be organizing similar events in other parts of the country as well. The event was thrilled by the rocking performance of Amjad Sabri (one of the famous Qawals) who also disseminated messages on TB during his performance.

The event was attended by big industrialists, representatives of National TB Control Program, private sector NGOs, board members of Stop TB Partnership Pakistan and many others from different walks of life. People generously gave funds for Stop TB Partnership Pakistan. These funds will be used for improving the lives of TB Patients. One of the females among the audience also donated her gold ring to the Stop TB Partnership Pakistan.

Another important feature of the event was the auction of Cricket Bat of Javaid Miandad - one of the famous cricketer's of his times and painting of Quaid-e-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah by a renowned painter which he painted during the event. A significant amount was raised during the event which will be used for the social support of TB patients.
